

REPORT ON WEBINER

SWAHID SMRITI MAHAVIDYALAYA : BELSOR

Topic: Adhunic Asomiya Kabita (1958-1971)

Date: 25th July, 2020

An online National Webiner on the topic “Adhunik Asomiya Kabita(1958-1971)(Modern Assamese Poetry: 1958-1971) was organized by Assamese dept. and IQAC of Swahid Smriti Mahavidyala, Belsor in collaboration with Assam College Librarian Association (ACLA) on 21st July 2020 at 6.30 PM. The webinar was inaugurated by Srimanta Madhab Borah, president of ACLA. Dr. Deexita Devi, Co ordinator of the webiner well addressed every participants and dignitaries by the warmth welcome speech in which she briefly explained the objectives and perspectives along with its relevance in the globalized society torn with liberal economy. How the literature, especially the Assamese poetry of a particular period viz. 1958 -1971 exhibits the eternal human values and the societal aspects of the world in general and the Assamese society in particular, she touched the context. After that the resource person Dr. Pranjal Sarma Bashistha, Asst. prof. ,Dept. of Assamese, Gauhati University, delivered his speech on the topic. Along with Dr. Birendar Pal, co-ordinator ICT cell, ACLA and librarian, Koliabor College and Mrs. Durga Kalita, Principal i/c, SSMB, a large number of participants participated in the webinar. After a long presentation a healthy interaction and discussion session was taken place. Towards the end of the session Mr. B. Kalita, coordinator of IQAC, Swahid Smriti Mahavidyalaya gave vote of thanks to all concerned. Certificates of participation were mailed to the mail address of the participants the provided.

